Col. J. R. Boone, of Louisville, is dead.

SARGENT MASON is to be exhibited as a curiosity in a Pittsburg museum.

DEALERS at Cincinnati have reduced the price of coal two cents on the bushel.

The graves of the Pilgrims who came over in the Mayflower have been discovered at Plymouth, Mass.

INDIANAPOLIS is making vigorous efforts to have the next National Republican Convention held in that city.

The French Cabinet Council has rescinded the decree forbidding the importation of American pork into France.

ACCORDING to a decision of the Indiana Supreme Court appropriations of money by the Legislature by joint resolution are illegal.

THOMAS A. DOYLE has been elected Mayor of Providence, R. I., for the fifteenth time, after an interval of three years, by a majority of 2,358.

WM. GAUNCE and Frank Swartz, of this county, were thrown from their buggy, near Weston, Nicholas county, a few days ago, and Mr. Gaunce's right leg was broken. Mr. Swartz was slightly injured.

THE Supreme Court of Ohio has ruled that an insurance company organization in another State can not claim the right to do business in Ohio upon a plan which the home companies are not permitted to adopt.

THERE is an increase in the tax valuation of property in Ohio of $38,681,148 over that of last year. The poorest county in the State is Paulding, which makes a return of property valued at less than half a million dollars.

THE Republican Congressional caucus will meet Saturday afternoon and the Democratic caucus in the evening. Keifer refuses to withdraw from the field. He hopes to get the nomination by a proposition to nominate all the old officers of the House by acclamation. Carlisle and Randall are both still confident. The former expects to receive the nomination on the first ballot. Randall is said to have captured twenty of the Carlisle men by promising them places on important committees. Carlisle refuses to make up his committees in advance.

B. McAuley. In noticing the presentation of "The Jerseyman," at Philadelphia, the Inquirer says:

Mr. McAuley appeared last night at the Arch street theatre in a new American comedy entitled "The Jerseyman," in which he sustains the part of Gilderoy, a speculative member from Mackerellville. The play is well constructed and interesting, although the plot is more convenient to the main purpose of displaying Mr. McAuley's humor and fun. In his personations there is always a deal of individuality, but it is the individuality of the artist rather than of the man. The part of Gilderoy was presented last night with as much emphasis as that in "The Messenger from Jarvis Section," which was given last week, but it was as widely different person. The piece is based on the loss and restoration of an English heiress, abandoned as seen as a baby, and brought up by Captain Mayberry as his own daughter. The incidents are striking, and the situations are strong.

CHINA still continues to be our most important customer for cotton goods. There has been during the first six months of the present year no material change in the character of the goods exported, and the demand was chiefly restricted to drills, sheetings, shirtings, jeans, colored cottons and printed calicoes. Large quantities of goods were sent to Canada by rail and to Mexico and other foreign markets via Texas, California and New Orleans, of which no regular record is kept. To nearly all the countries to which we export cotton by any regular extent, England sends larger quantities of goods. The exceptions to this, however, are Mexico and the Argentine Republic. To China, as already stated, our largest customer, England's exports, inclusive of Hong Kong, have largely increased during the past year.

This programme of the Cincinnati Opera Festival embraces the modern and classic schools of Italian, German, French opera, with their most famous composers. Several of these operas have never been performed in America, and the majority permit the grandest display of the spectacular drama, with beautiful scenery and costumes, and a thousand rich and curious accessories, with a larger chorus than is found on any stage in the world, and a numerous orchestra. They, at the same time, introduce the world's famous prima donnas, Nilsson, Sembrich, Valeria, Fursch, Madi, Scelchi, Trebelli; with such artists as Campanini, Stagno, Del Puente, Kaschmann, Mirabella, Novara, and others. In every sense of the word, this is an Opera Festival. One reason for the wonderful popularity of these festivals, is the low prices of admission. Season tickets for two weeks, twelve performances, is $20. For one week, six performances, $11. Two dollars for admission, and a good seat, and one dollar admission makes it the "people's opera." The festival begins February 11th, 1884.

COUNTY POINTS.

RHANNON.

Wm. L. Gault took his regular monthly trip to Rectorville last Saturday and Sunday. A very heavy wind storm struck this section last Wednesday evening, but not much damage was done.

W. T. Cole & Son have the cheapest and best selected stock of goods ever put on the market here.

The past week has been splendid tobacco season, and the farmers have been taking advantage of it.

The farmers are talking very much of organizing a stock sale company, which is very much needed here.

Miss Carrie B. Dye, one of Sarah's leading belles, has been visiting Miss Phoebe Herndon, of Desha Valley the past week.

The turkey buyers of this place have made an assignment and call it poor business. C. C. Cole, W. J. Chanslor and W. T. Browning attended County Court at Flemingsburg last Monday and report their business a No. one.

On account of the rainy evening the wife society failed to meet at Mr. Chas. Bland's last Thursday evening, but you may expect a nice time at the next meeting Thursday, December 6, at Mr. Bland's.

Bad Luck of a Bad Barber.

MARSHALLTOWN, Iowa, Nov. 28.—Late Tuesday evening Wm. Swanson, a barber, while attempting to enter the rooms of a notorious woman of the town, was shot through the body, near the heart, by Eugene Shelton, a well-known gambler. The men had a fight about the woman earlier in the evening, when shots were exchanged.

Cigar Box Makers' Strike.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The cigar box makers are still on a strike, and are likely to be for some time, as the manufacturers do not evince any signs of weakening. The strikers are still receiving assistance from the various labor and trade organizations, and say that they intend to stay out until their Union is recognized by the manufacturers.

Complimenting America.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The Times, in an editorial upon the celebration of Emancipation Day in New York, says the keen American mind is turning eagerly toward the best the modern world can give it. The intellectual future of such a race is not likely to disappoint the most sanguine prophets.

SCROFULA

and all scrofulous diseases, Sores, Erysipelas, Eczema, Blotches, Ringworm, Tumors, Carbuncles, Boils, and Eruptions of the Skin, are the direct result of an impure state of the blood.

To cure these diseases the blood must be purified, and restored to a healthy and natural condition. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has for over forty years been recognized by eminent medical authorities as the most powerful blood purifier in existence. It frees the system from all foul humors, enriches and strengthens the blood, removes all traces of mercurial treatment, and proves itself a complete master of all scrofulous diseases.

A Recent Cure of Scrofulous Sores.
